

ANIMALS ON THE ROAD

Hundreds of people are injured every year in collisions involving animals in the road

Watch out for animals throughout the year

Be especially vigilant at dawn, dusk or nighttime

Be aware of wildlife crossing/warning signs

Animals may travel in groups - if you see one animal, chances are more may be following

If a collision is inevitable - don't swerve to try and avoid the animal, maintain control of the vehicle and report the incident.